

AFTER last week's vital point at Enfield, Wycombe Wanderers can take a break from the pressures of the Rothmans Isthmian League when they travel to Aylesbury's ground to meet little Rivets Sports in the third round of the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup.

Wanderers, forced by the County F.A. to compete in the first round this year after refusing to accept the trophy last season, have so far beaten Buckingham 7-1 and Chalfont St. Peter 2-0 away from home. This will be their third successive away game against a minor club in the Senior Cup.

But although Rivets have no chance of victory on paper (they lost 7-1 to Wanderers last year in the same competition), the Aylesbury works team feel they can give Wycombe a far better match than last season. Rivets official F. G. Stanton said this week: "We'd love to draw and go back to Wycombe. They are not doing so well this season and I think we can give them a good game."

Rivets were relegated from the Rothmans Hellenic League Premier Division last season and are currently third in Division One with only three defeats. They are also in the semi-final of the League Cup.

With three squad men leaving recently — Derek Harris, Paul Sussons and Derek Cotterill — Wanderers are likely to field a strong side for the game which, on a much improved Aylesbury pitch, should prove far too good for Rivets. The match kicks off at the earlier time of 2 p.m.
